The Brussels region has banned the use of herbicides containing glyphosate (effective since 12th December 2016) as well as banned the use of insecticides containing fipronil or neonicotinoids (effective from 20th February 2016). This prohibition is valid both for individuals and for professionals, including the agricultural sector.